

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Marme Kopp
Director of PR

marmekopp@spherion.com

(904) 333-3163

Olympic and World Championship Coach Joins SRB Rowing

Paul Mokha is the new Director of Rowing for the nearly 30-year-old Northeast Florida rowing club

(Jacksonville, Fla., July 19, 2017) — Olympic- and World Championship-level coach, Paul Mokha has joined SRB Rowing as the Director of Rowing. Mokha will oversee the men's and women's junior and middle school programs for this Northeast Florida non-profit rowing club.

"We're excited Paul [Mokha] is bringing his world-class skills and insight to our young athletes. His addition to the team is a welcome investment in the growth and success of the Northeast Florida area," said President of SRB Rowing Chrissy Ferrer.

Mokha, who has more than 25 years of coaching experience, previously worked as the Head Coach for the India Armed Services. In that role he qualified their Men's single sculler for the 2016 Olympic Games, where he finished 13th. Before that, Mokha spent 16 years coaching at the collegiate level and earned the Collegiate Rowing Coaches Association's National Coach of the Year award in 2006.

"I'd like to thank the SRB board for this opportunity and am excited to work with this group of young rowers," said Mokha.

Interested athletes can learn more about SRB Rowing at www.srb-rowing.org.

About SRB Rowing

SRB Rowing (SRB) is a non-profit competitive youth rowing program in Jacksonville, Florida whose mission is to help children establish strong character, learn life skills and develop physically and emotionally through the sport of rowing. SRB is open to any interested middle or high school student. Learn more about SRB at www.srb-rowing.org.

###